NEVADA'S YOUNG GIANTS WON A HARD BATTLE

A Sensational Score.

Played Rough Game.

The visitors played rougher ball than is been seen on a Utah gridiron for me time. For the first time this year player has been ordered off the flex of slugging, when Lawrerce was sent the bench by Umpire Shoup. Then rain, their tackling of a player around eneck and burling him to the ground sy be considered all right by the Pade coast football teams, but it is not iterated by Utah elevens. Time and me again the local playing the hold, and no penalty was imposed. he home team played a remarkably een game, and it was doubtful if they ere once cautioned for slugging or hold. Taking the game as a whole it was one of the teams were evenly matched and it was a bitter fight for victory during the shole time of play. Both elevens were iseld for downs several times, and both leams were forced to kick. No mistakes were made by the phoposing captains at critical moments and the plays were salled for that were the greatest ground gainers.

B. H. Roberts, father of the punk righty half-back, was one of the roost excited spectators on the ground. Judge W. H. King also enthused and any number of other celebrities stood it through.

GAME IN DETAIL.

First Half.

Nevada won the toss and chose the cast goal. Graham kicked to Bennion, fumble, but J. Weston saved the ball for the local team. On the next play Harker went around the left end for a thirty-yard run and was downed by Hofmann.

Nevada Gets the Ball.

Captain Leadbetter of the Nevada team has gained the respect of all the players on the University team for his gentlemanly conduct in yesterday's game. No matter what question came up, the Nevada captain was alway, ready to stand by the decision of the officials. He had little to say and played a star game for his team.

The Nevada team will leave for home this evening. Several of the boys, however, have announced their intention of staying over for a few days. Coach Stecker will go on east from this city to his home in Chicago for a short visit. Last evening the bays were taken in charge by the entert ining committee of the local university and taken to the theatres.
